Sir/Madam,

If this is intended to be a sincere inquiry then why on earth limit the submission to 3 pages? Surely a proper set out should be the basis of any genuine inquiry. I however can in one way limit my submission to 3 pages by providing the attachment as part of evidence.

Fears vaccine hubs could be 'targeted' as online chatter spikes

QUOTE

A special team of AFP detectives has been appointed by the Federal Government to watch the online interactions of the anti-vaccination "movement".

In response I lodged that day 6 August 2021 a formal complaint with the Australian Federal Police followed by numerous supplements, as shown by the attachment, which all can be downloaded from my blog <https://www.swcribd.com/inspectorrikati> which shows I exposed how the Department of Health made false claims on its website, how the TGA failed proper investigation, allegedly contrary to its statement on its website to rely upon the FDA (USA), and the latter neither investigating what really was going on and the mere fact that R$V40 monkey virus (the one that caused the harm regarding polio injections around the 1960's underlines that the 'safe and effective' deceptive mantra was a well-planned criminal conduct to pursue the "gene therapy" DEPOPULATION bioweapon mass murder upon Australians also.

[REDACTED] being a heart patient now has also been targeted by Banyule City council with their terrorism where I have been exposing the constitutional wrongdoing of the Federal government, the State government and municipal/shire councils.

I never had any doubt that the Australian Federal Police likely would not investigate, and by their failure to do so be an accomplice to the treason and terrorism engaged in by the various governments. Not just Labor or Liberals!

Let it be clear, that the push for the World Health Organisation to now take over Australians (and so the world) personal & constitutional rights is in violation of our rights enshrined in the principles of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1900 (UK) in which the High Court of Australia itself also is involved (Consider Palmer v WA).

I do not think the word quarantine, for instance, which is used in the sub-section of the 52nd clause, is intended to give the Commonwealth power to legislate with regard to any quarantine. That simply applies to quarantine as referring to diseases among man-kind.

Let me make something very clear, that any Australian who vote because it is compulsory simply doesn't understand what our constitution stands for. The Australian Electoral Commission charged me regarding the 2001 federal election in AEC v Schorel-Hlavka for FAILING TO VOTE upon which I filed and served also upon all 9 Attorney-Generals a NOTICE OF CONSTITUTIONAL MATTER challenging the constitutional validity of the "compulsory part of voting. The AEC again subsequently charged me with FAILING TO VOTE regarding the 2004 federal election. All along representing myself on 19 July 2006 I comprehensively defeated the lot of them. I am not against any Australian to exercise the right to vote, and at times I do so, but my issue is that the "compulsory" part is UNCONSTITUTIONAL. The constitution doesn't provide for anything of "EMERGENCY" and as such any claim of DECLARED EMERGENCY cannot override the constitutional rights of any Australian. However, the court at times may hold that in certain circumstances a fire fighter, etc, may not be held legally accountable in the circumstances prevailing. As such, the alleged "MANDATES" had no legal basis and as a matter of fact the States/Territories had no constitutional powers for legislative, executive and administrative powers to create let alone enforce "MANDATES". I understand that the [REDACTED] it had isolated the alleged "SARD-CoV-2" virus, this even so no one has ever proved by the Koch postulate to have isolated and purified this alleged virus. Actually, the symptoms of the alleged "COVID" 19 were about identical. It was merely relabelling influenza (flu) as COVID-19, and use FEAR to scare the lining daylight out of people around the world with the collusion of those in the governments. Former PM Scott Morrison relied upon the UNCONSTITUTIONAL "NATIONAL SECURITY" as to hide the secret UNCONSTITUTIONAL arrangements with the pharmaceutical companies, but our constitution doesn't provide for this. Every contract using taxpayers monies must be revealed in full, and if a company doesn't like the disclosure then well they shouldn't do business with our governments. Ask yourself who got the commission pharmaceutical companies were paying for the contracts? We are talking about tens of millions of dollars! This is also why the unconstitutional "NATIONAL SECURITY" was pursued so that those in government had a quick rich scheme with no accountability, even so violating s44 of the constitution. Moreover Section 45 of the constitution is that any Member of Parliament engaged in such conduct AUTOMATICALLY has lost the seat. [REDACTED]

As I stated [REDACTED] is suffering from heart failure but she may outlive perhaps most of Australians (or the world population) who had been jabbed with the "gene therapy" DEPOPULATION bioweapon, this as experts have stated that most people jabbed will likely die within 6 years of the jab! So, anyone reading this better start making their last testament before it might be too late! Then we heard about the blood cloths, which I understand from the reports I quoted in my writings are not blood cloths but are certain non-blood cloths due to the graphite and undisclosed items in the "gene therapy" DEPOPULATION bioweapon. It means that no one ever could be considered to have given "informed consent". Anyone who really care about the health, wellbeing and safety of their family and others I view would have no hesitation to demand a ROYAL COMMISSION I made clear was needed some years ago.

How many politicians are having their children injected with childhood vaccinations required by the States/Territories totally unaware that these vaccinations regarding any infectious disease such as measles, polio, etc, are beyond the powers of any State/Territorial government since 1908?

The day after the purported 2022 Federal election Australian Representatives allegedly voted for widening WHO powers, which means that

The particular danger is this: That we do not want to give to the Commonwealth powers which ought to be left to the states. The point is that we are not going to make the Commonwealth a kind of social and religious power over us.

END QUOTE

As such the Commonwealth Government has absolutely no constitutional powers for the WHO to micromanage how Australians are going to be living, etc.

Hansard 1-3-1898 Constitution Convention Debates

QUOTE Sir JOHN DOWNER.-

I think we might, on the attempt to found this great Commonwealth, just advance one step, not beyond the substance of the legislation, but beyond the form of the legislation, of the different colonies, and say that there shall be embedded in the Constitution the righteous principle that the Ministers of the Crown and their officials shall be liable for any arbitrary act or wrong they may do, in the same way as any private person would be.

END QUOTE

Meaning that any treaty the Federal Government enters into cannot be enforced against Australians. Those who nevertheless collaborate to defy our constitutional rights can be held legally accountable! Even if you cannot care less about your own life just don't be a coward and stand up for the constitutional rights of your family members and others also to honour the position you are in and pursue a comprehensive ROYAL COMMISSION to hold those involved in the [redacted] legally accountable. See attachment "20231211-Running pages-AFP -SUBMISSION - G. H. Schorel-Hlavka" with links!

You may ignore my writings and warnings but the poisonous jabs will not ignore the jabbed!

We need to return to the organics and legal principles embed in of our federal constitution!
