

Please be advised that I request the Government conduct a fully independent Royal Commission into every aspect of the Covid Pandemic. The terms of reference must be very wide ranging and include the ability to call and require all evidence and actions of any person the commission considers relevant. That may include any and all federal and state heads of departments and/or current or former members of both state and federal parliaments