

Submission to Australian Senate
Response to Covid 19

The response was extremely disorganised.

Australia should have adopted a National response... similar to the response to a 'war' situation.

Australia witnessed a completely disorganised and petty responses... even down to the 'postcode' areas .Premiers squabbling over resources and isolation restrictions. A complete lack of mature balanced management.

A 'war' cabinet should be entrusted with full management of the nation.